RACING GOSSIP.

In the line of officialism, the current Racing Calendar publishes the Eastern forfeit list. Such information was needed. There are screams in the air about the publication and threats—via the cheapness of telegraphic correspondence in the dairies—about libel suits. Bosh! When a man incurs an obligation he pays it—if he can and is honest. If he cannot pay in the present he does in the nearest possible future.

There are some owners in the list who are there solely by neglect. They'll settle quickly. The other fellows should be known. There is no more reason for turf debt than mercantile debt. A "welcher" is a welcher in every avenue. The calendar's list covers fifteen big pages and foots up $79,447. It covers only the Jockey Club tracks. The Western array is just as large. It should be tabulated and published.

Marcus Daly, about $8,000; Dave Gideon, about $12,000; Gideon & Daly, the Thompsons, and the Keenes are the heaviest creditors. Marcus Daly and Dave Gideon have been most severely punished by Eastern owners. There are not many Western men in the list. The heaviest Chicago debtors are C. H. Smith, $1,950, and B. V. Connolly, $550.

Voter's win of the Metropolitan Handicap was not far out of line. The English colt was a high class two-year-old and is beautifully bred. But in the general racing of 1896 The Friar and Challenger were better Eastern colts than Voter and of the Western few in the East, Ogden, Typhoon II and George Rose held him safe. Voter won the White Plains, Winged Foot, Billow of 1896 and was third in the Great Eastern to Ogden and Typhoon II and second in the Sapphire to The Friar. Voter is not in the Brooklyn or Suburban Handicaps.

Little Bob's four miles at Oakland in 7:24½ under 100 pounds is next to Star Ruby's, the best performance in a race for California. Candid carried 97 pounds and ran the distance in 7:24½ in the Spreckles stake of 1896 at Ingleside. Star Ruby carried 109 pounds. The Guide has Candor down as running the long route in 7:24½ which is an error. Marigold ran it in 7:20½, with 106 pounds up in 1893 in a race against time and that's the fastest time for four miles ever made by a mare. Wildidle held the California four-mile race record, 7:25½, made over Bay District course as far back as 1875. Ashland was the first horse in the Golden State to beat 7:50. He ran it in 7:49½, in 1859. Langford shortly afterward ran it in 7:43½, and October 18, 1873, his son, Thad Stevens, ran a second heat of four miles in 7:30, carrying 115 pounds. This is the best second heat on record. Katy Pease's win of the big end of the $25,000 stake was in the fall of 1874. Her time was 7:43½, 7:36½. In 1883 May D beat Ella Doane and Lucky B, in 7:36 flat, and in 1893 Marigold won a four-mile race in 7:28½. She was a daughter of Katy Pease. Shortly thereafter the Thornton Stakes were instituted, and Gilead, a grandson of Katy Pease, won in 7:32 over a very slow track.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

R. E. Downing, a well-known horseman, recently died at San Frisco.

Rumor has it that the present Nashville meeting will last at least thirty days.

W. P. Maxwell will start the horses and use his timing machine during the St. Louis meeting.

Tully Coulter's good colt Front de Boeuf died Sunday. He was not well cared for during the journey from California.

Barney Schreiber has signed J. Woods, the promising Californian light weight jockey. He can ride at less than 70 pounds.

Riley Grannan's case has been taken out of the New York courts by Grannan on the basis, as rumor has it, of a settlement.

Barney Schreiber is the owner of a fine bay colt by the great son of Musket, Foul Shot, out of Gratitude, the dam of Lottie Mills.

"Al Farrow" Smith's partner, Shuman, is the German liverystable keeper of Carracas, Venezuela, who has won so well over racing in a Central American way.

Lexington turfmen are said to incline to the notion that J. C. Rogers' filly, Loneta, will win the Louisville Oaks. It is said she can outrun any three-year-old at Lexington in her work.

Under the Percy-Gray law in New York last season the three principal Jockey Club tracks paid $37,890.21 to the state in taxes as follows: Brooklyn, $12,443.50; Sheepshead Bay, $12,744.89; Morris Park, $12,700.84.

Trainer W. M. Murry is going East this year. His string will be composed of Michael, a Morrello colt, Perseus, Rey del Tierra, Three Forks, Yankee Doodle, Sadie Schwartz and Loyal Prize.—Breeder and Sportsman.

'Gene Leigh was in town Monday, but went to Cincinnati Monday night to care for the planned victory of Tom Toher and Hardly, both of whom he bred. He will bring a stable to Ingalls Park, and reports nine colts and one filly from Kingston and eight colts and five fillies from Bramble at La Belle. Leo Kline was with Leigh.

CHICAGO, ILL., MAY 12, 1897.

The Chicago newspapers have done what they could wherever they could to ruin the horse breeding interests of Illinois. They are still at it. The most active in the work is the more than usually intelligent Record and the normally fair Evening News. The matter of racing does not receive the general newspaper consideration it deserves. Understrappers are allowed to write villainously unfair criticisms about something they do not understand.

The news, too, that tells of a bribery fund in the interest of a racing bill at Springfield is fake news, and lying news. The comment that pictures the Washington Park track as the gathering place for bad characters is spiteful and unfair. If it was, every public resort should be so considered and reported.

A letter was sent to each member of the Illinois Senate and House of Representatives Saturday. It stated the situation as to racing and its bearing on Chicago and Illinois fairly. The Record denounced it Tuesday morning as "an exhibition of cheek and mendacity," and the production of persons to whom it also refers to as "race track gamblers" in the course of five inches or so of printed words.

A statement that damage had been done to real estate adjacent to race track property is made in The Record's comment. Some figures as the 1894 and 1897 land values on property near to the Washington Park, Hawthorne and Harlem tracks would have carried more weight than false statement. The Record also questions the declaration, recently made, about loss to Chicago merchants through the prohibition of racing. The amateur who wrote the editorial might serve The Record better if he would better learn Chicago movement. He can get a list of local merchants, who might tell him about such doings, at this office. He can also be furnished with a list of breeders and horsemen—good citizens of Illinois—who have been pinched by the recent "reign of terror," the result of prejudice against reasonable and well regulated racing, caused by mean, ignorant and unfair newspaper comment.
